What's new:

A United States court granted judgment in favor of Saint-Gobain against Xinyi Glass for infringements of certain patents held by Saint-Gobain in the US with payment of US$24.19 million (or HK$188.68mn). Xinyi Glass plans to appeal.

Negative impact on 2010 earnings could be 8.8%. The company provided a reserve of HK$85.3mn in the 2009 P&L after receiving the first unfavorable verdict in November 2009. Therefore, we expect another reserve of HK$103.3mn will be provided for 2010.

Export momentum unchanged. The lawsuit could have a negative impact on the company's business in North America. However, it is also performing aggressive exploration and exporting to other countries (Australia, Africa and the Middle East), which could largely offset the negative impact. Exports to these countries surged 20.3% to HK$794.8mn in 2009, accounting for 20.1% of total revenue vs. 14.7% from North America.

Short term stock price pressure expected, since: 1). payment is larger than expected; 2) market could have more concerns that overseas expansion will run into similar problems in the future.

Valuation and recommendation:

We lower our earnings forecast by 8.8% for 2010 to factor in the lawsuit's impact. We maintain our target price of HK$8.7/share. Current stock price is 12.8x 2010 P/E, still lower than the peers' average of 13.7x. Investors are advised to ACCUMULATE the counter when the stock price tumbles due to the event.

Risks:

Further unfavorable developments in this lawsuit.
