Dear Shareholders

On behalf of the board (the “Board”) of directors (the “Directors”) of Xinyi Glass Holdings Limited (the “Company”), I am pleased to present herewith the unaudited condensed consolidated interim results of the Company and its subsidiaries (collectively, the “Group”) for the six months ended 30 June 2025 (the “1H2025”).

In comparison with the six months ended 30 June 2024 (the “1H2024”), revenue of the Group decreased by 9.7% to RMB9,821.3 million during the 1H2025. The profit attributable to equity holders of the Company for the 1H2025 decreased by 59.6% to RMB1,012.8 million. Basic earnings per share was 23.25 RMB cents, as compared with 59.41 RMB cents for the 1H2024.

The Board considers that the Group has achieved a reasonable level of profitability in an unfavorable market condition. Hence, the Board is pleased to declare an interim dividend of 12.5 HK cents per share.

I present below an overview of the business of the Group for the 1H2025 and key development highlights for the coming half year.

B I N E E I E

During the 1H2025, despite the PRC government's initiatives continued to encourage timely completion and delivery of the property projects, the volume of the property developments completed within the period continued to decrease. Amid challenges of the complicated external environment and the domestic supply-side structural reforms, the PRC's glass industry is under subdued conditions. Demand in the PRC's glass market has slowdown, with the property sector remaining weak since the fourth quarter of 2021 due to the debt crises and the liquidity constraints faced by the highly leveraged developers.

Chairman's Statement

In response to the macro-economic uncertainties and high HKD interest rates, the Group utilised its financial resources to re-finance all HKD bank loans with the lower interest rate RMB bank loans. Such re-financing enabled the Group to reduce the interest expenses in the 1H2025. Declining average costs of raw materials and energy also mitigated the negative impact of the low ASP for the float glass products. As a result, the Group's operations in the automobile glass, architectural glass and float glass segments encountered different challenges and more importantly, opportunities that emerged from the global market.

The Group's net profit decreased by 59.6% for the 1H2025 primarily due to the net effect of lower gross profits of the float glass products and the architectural glass products and the decreased amount of profits shared from Xinyi Solar Holdings Limited ("Xinyi Solar") in the 1H2025.

The Group implemented stringent policies on production costs and energy conservation to enhance the cost efficiency. Also, the Group focused on the high value-added components and features, different colours and thickness of the float glass, automobile glass and architectural glass products as well as window structure-upgraded and energy-saving coating glass products. As for operations, the Group streamlined the production flow and the logistics and adopted flexible global marketing strategies for its float glass, architectural glass and automobile glass products.

Given the widespread liquidity issues among the private property developers in the PRC, the Group's architectural glass business has focused on the new glass window installation projects which are mainly led by the government related entities, PRC State-owned enterprises or the property developers with strong financial position. The sales volume of the architectural glass products decreased due to the unfavourable condition in the new construction projects in the PRC during the period.

The demand for the architectural energy-saving Low-E coating glass products continued to increase, because of the Group's strong reputation with outstanding track records, aggressive and flexible marketing strategies and the selection of a wide range of advanced coating materials and compound structured glass products.

During the 1H2025, the Group's automobile glass segment continued to be affected by the US additional import tariff, elevated financing costs and intense local competition. The business segment has developed and will launch new glass products for the advanced driver assistance systems ("ADAS"), head-up displays ("HUD"), noise insulation, low-emissivity coatings, sunroofs and thermal management, which are tailored for both new and existing vehicle models (including EVs).

The Group actively explored new opportunities domestically and internationally, strengthening the relationships with the existing and new customers to boost sales of new and existing products. The Group also participated in a wide range of overseas exhibitions and actively visited the overseas customers in the 1H2025. The Group's automobile glass products are sold to customers in over 140 countries or territories.

As a global industry leader, the Group consolidated its position through strategic expansions and acquisitions, deploying streamlined and automated production across facilities in China, Malaysia and Indonesia. The new float glass and automobile glass production facilities in Gresik, Indonesia, provides better production cost structure and lower U.S. import tariffs.

The operational enhancements included tighter cost controls for raw materials, ownership of silica sand mines and transport vessels, optimised the supply chains and increased the percentage of recycling. The Group also upgraded the production process with automation, centralised control systems, rooftop solar panels, and residual heat systems to generate electricity and hot water aligning with national carbon neutrality goals.

To enhance the competitiveness, the Group continues developing unique glass products with specialised colours, thicknesses, coatings, structural designs and other value-added features. It leverages proactive pricing, flexible marketing strategies and incentives under China's 14th Five-Year Plan.

Chairman's Statement

Improved productivity, product quality and features, technology and economies of scale to enhance production efficiency, new products, new equipment, automation and advanced float glass line design by new research and development ("R&D") investments

The Group's ongoing R&D investments in new materials, coatings, production technologies, automation and information technology, the use of big data analytics and environmental controls improved the capacity, yield and the sustainability, reducing emissions, waste, labour, production and energy costs in 1H2025.

The Group's engineering teams designed world-class, eco-friendly float glass production lines in China, Malaysia, and Indonesia with high capacity and energy efficiency and yield. The achieved economies of scale has reduced the procurement and production costs while optimising the use of fuel and raw material. The use of clean energy (solar and residual heat recovery) further controlled the energy expenses and emissions.

The use of natural gas for high-quality float glass production reduced the carbon emissions, improved the air quality, supported the carbon neutrality goals, enhanced the product quality and optimised the energy cost structure.

The Group's R&D teams continue developing new glass products improving the low-emissivity, coatings, automotive components and process improvement to capture the emerging opportunities.

Expanding Differentiated Portfolios and Global Reach

Amid the global inflation, geopolitical logistics disruptions and intense competition in the 1H2025, the Group achieved a reasonable level of profitability in the automobile glass, architectural glass and the high-quality float glass businesses. These demonstrate the Group's diversified product segments, integrated production and supply chain, global market coverage, strategically located overseas production facilities, upgraded product mix, state-of-art production lines, expanded high value-added and differentiated product offerings and strong cashflow. All of these could mitigate the operational pressure and risks in any specific business segment or country in a less favourable market environment.

Robust Finance and Ongoing Funding Optimisation for Expansion

The Group has solid financial position with RMB2,033.0 million cash and bank deposits, current ratio of 1.18 with low net debt gearing ratio of 14.3% and sufficient banking facilities available as of 30 June 2025. The Group's strong credit history has allowed it to reduce the effective borrowing interest rate to 2.74%. For the 1H2025, the Group has new bank borrowings of RMB2,550.8 million with the cash generated from operations of RMB1,564.6 million, demonstrating its ability to secure financing and cash inflow from multiple sources to support its capital expenditure and future expansion. The Group has repaid net amount of RMB258.3 million in bank loans.

B I N E O O K

To sustain the global leadership and the competitive position among the global glass manufacturers, the Group will continue to enhance its operational efficiency through the use of advanced technology, central management, integrated supply chains, automation, logistics, including self-operated vessels to reduce freight costs, and proactive strategies for differentiated product portfolios and marketing to strengthen customer's loyalty.

Responding to the tightening emissions and energy standards under China's carbon neutrality policy, the government continues the implementation of rigorous supply-side reforms—restricting the new float glass capacity acquisitions and phasing out the non-compliant facilities. The Group adopts a prudent yet flexible strategy to navigate the competitive markets globally, for the purpose of strengthening the risk management and production cost controls.

Soda ash prices in 2025 are expected to remain low level compared to 2024 due to increased supply in China and overseas. Energy costs trended downward in 1H2025 as global crude oil prices remained relatively stable.

The U.S.-China trade tensions continue impacting the aftermarket automobile glass customers. These effects are gradually mitigated by the Group's new automobile glass production lines in Malaysia. Another new automobile glass production lines in Gresik, East Java, Indonesia, commenced operations in 1H2025. The Group intends to further explore overseas capacity expansion to address different tariff risks.

Chairman's Statement

The PRC government is expected to continue introducing additional economic initiatives and monetary policies to boost the domestic consumption cycle and stabilise the domestic property market. The policies would put less pressure on the funding channels for completion of designated properties and the delivery of new property projects to the property buyers, which would result in more construction and window installation activities in future, in turn increasing the demand for float and architectural glass.

The Directors remain optimistic about the continuous development of the Group's automobile glass aftermarket and OEM business in the global market as the number of vehicles and the new cars sales globally and in the PRC are expected to increase in 2025, as well as on the prospects of increasing sales in the advanced glass window structure products, such as the energy-saving and single and double-insulated Low-E glass segments, with the target of carbon neutrality in the PRC in the future.

After years of expansion across major economic zones of China and Southeast Asia, the Group continues seeking acquisition and greenfield opportunities offering market access, lowering labour and raw material costs, more favourable tax treatment and energy advantages. The new float glass production facilities in Gresik, Indonesia, alongside the automotive and architectural glass facilities, have strengthened its ASEAN presence.

Since 2021, the Group has formed a new business division dedicated to the carbon neutrality, which is vested with responsibility for the planning, implementation and monitoring of the Group's carbon neutrality policies and targets. Its energy conservation plan also helps to improve the overall energy cost structure and promote the employees' awareness of the carbon neutrality objective of the Group.

The Directors believe that clean and renewable energy will become the major energy source, with demand surging in both China and international markets. Solar power represents an efficient, reliable and safe renewable source of energy, offering lower installation costs and faster deployment than hydropower, nuclear or wind. Consequently, a significant growth in the solar farm construction is anticipated globally and in China, driven by the national carbon neutrality goal like China's 2060 target. The European market, in particular, has seen accelerated growth spurred by the post-2022 energy crisis.

To capitalise on this, the Group will allocate sufficient resources to R&D, product quality enhancement and the development of new products, materials, models, features, equipment and automation. The Group will also focus on the improvement in the production flows, development of new markets, increase the operational efficiency, advance our carbon neutrality initiatives and optimise the logistics. Concurrently, enhanced staff training will ensure production safety, enhance competitiveness and marketing skills and ultimately drive greater the increase in the profitability.

CONCLUSION

Despite the global volatility, financial risks, geopolitical tensions and energy price pressures, the Group continues to tackle and overcome challenges amidst changes in the global market, by bolstering its efficiency and increasing its profitability through more effective and flexible management strategies across its cash management, credit control, information technology, logistics, procurement and supply chain, production, sales and marketing, operational and R&D activities, as well as the expansion of its business collaboration with its customers, suppliers and business partners. These efforts enhance the Group's efficiency and profitability. The Directors believe that such measures will maximise the investment returns from China and emerging overseas markets while maintaining cautious optimism for the long-term growth.

The Group will continue to refine its proven business strategies to sustain its performance. To retain the industry leadership and seek opportunities to expand across the global glass and upstream markets in a wide spectrum of industries, applications and product mix, while cultivating mutually beneficial partnerships for the benefit of its business, employees and shareholders.

Chairman's Statement

A C K N O W L E D G E M E N T

The Board would like to take this opportunity to express its gratitude to all shareholders, customers, suppliers, employees and business partners of the Group for their continuous support.

Dr. LEE Yin Yee, S.B.S.

Chairman

Hong Kong, 1 August 2025

FINANCIAL REVIEW

During the 1H2025, the revenue and the net profit attributable to the shareholders of the Company amounted to RMB9,821.3 million and RMB1,012.8 million, respectively, representing a decrease of 9.7% and of 59.6%, as compared to RMB10,881.7 million and RMB2,509.3 million for the 1H2024.

The decrease in the amount of revenue for the 1H2025 was mainly attributable to the continuous decreases in the average selling prices (“ASP”) of the float glass products during the 1H2025. As a result, the revenue contributed by the sales of the float glass products decreased by 16.4%, as compared to the 1H2024.

The PRC property market continued to be sluggish during the 1H2025. The funding liquidity was tight and the number of newly completed property projects decreased significantly.

The increase in the amount of revenue generated from the automobile glass business was due to the increase in sales generated from the overseas market and the OEM market in the PRC as a result of the good quality and the efforts in attracting new customers.

With the PRC government policies on the environmental protection, carbon neutrality and the encouragement of the construction of the energy-saving buildings, the Group continued to invest in the double and triple glazing architectural low emission (“Low-E”) coating and compound structure glass products. As a leading Low-E glass manufacturer in Asia, the Group enjoys the benefits generated from the economies of scale and a comprehensive sales and delivery network covering the entire region. The Group focused on the customers which are supported by the government, the PRC State-owned enterprises and the financially-sound property developers. The decrease in the sales of architectural glass projects was mainly attributable to the decrease in the sales volume and ASP of a wide range of the Low-E coating glass products because of the decrease in the newly completed property projects in the PRC.

Management Discussion and Analysis

G

The Group's gross profit for the 1H2025 decreased by 16.7% to RMB3,101.7 million, as compared to RMB3,724.4 million for the 1H2024. The gross profit margin also decreased to 31.6% during the 1H2025, as compared to 34.2% for the 1H2024.

The decrease in the gross profit margin was due to the continuous decreases in the ASP of float glass products, which have been mitigated by the low average costs of raw materials and energy, during 1H2025.

O

Other income decreased to RMB253.7 million, as compared to RMB376.8 million for the 1H2024. The decrease was mainly attributable to the decrease in government grants and income from sale of automatic machineries during the 1H2025.

O () / -

Other losses were RMB273.8 million for the 1H2025. As compared to other gains of RMB221.4 million for the 1H2024, the significant difference was mainly due to both of losses on disposal and impairment losses of property, plant and equipment in the 1H2025 and the significant other foreign exchange gains in the 1H2024.

Selling and marketing costs increased by 17.4% to RMB661.3 million for the 1H2025. The increase was mainly due to the increase of the additional import duties expenses in the USA.

Ad

Administrative expenses increased by 1.8% to RMB1,107.1 million for the 1H2025. The increase was principally attributable to the increase in the staff costs for new production facilities in the 1H2025.

Management Discussion and Analysis

Share of profits of associates were mainly contributed by Xinyi Solar and Xinyi Energy Holdings Limited, none of which is considered a subsidiary of the Company. The amount of profits shared decreased to RMB202.9 million during the 1H2025, as compared to RMB419.8 million for the 1H2024. The decrease was mainly due to the decreased profit contribution from Xinyi Solar.

F

Finance costs decreased by 47.4% to RMB62.8 million for the 1H2025. The decrease was principally due to the refinancing of all of the Hong Kong dollars loans with the RMB loans which have lower interest rates during the 1H2025. A portion of the interest expenses were capitalised as part of the total cost in the purchase of plant and machinery and the construction of the Group's production facilities in the PRC, Malaysia and Indonesia, and these expenses have been charged to the income statement of the Group following the commencement of commercial production at the relevant production facilities. Interest amounting to RMB36.4 million was capitalised under construction-in-progress for the 1H2025.

E

(“EBI DA”)

EBITDA decreased by 43.3% to RMB2,102.9 million for the 1H2025, as compared to RMB3,710.7 million for the 1H2024.

I

Income tax expense decreased by 32.8% to RMB316.9 million in the 1H2025 due to the decreased amount of profits generated and the payment of PRC dividend withholding tax. The effective tax rate of the Group was increased to 23.7%, as compared to 15.8% for the 1H2024. The effective tax rate was higher in the 1H2025 mainly due to less profits shared from the associate companies as compared to the 1H2024. Most of the Group's PRC subsidiaries are qualified as high technology enterprises with a preferential profit tax rate of 15.0% under the applicable the PRC corporate income tax laws and regulations

Management Discussion and Analysis

Net Profit

Net profit was RMB1,012.8 million for the 1H2025, representing a decrease of 59.6%, as compared to the 1H2024. The net profit margin for the 1H2025 also decreased to 10.3% from 23.1% for the 1H2024, principally due to the decreases in the gross profits of float glass business and reduction of share of profits of associates.

Trade and Other Receivables

Trade and other receivables increased 3.1% to RMB6,843.4 million for the 1H2025, as compare to the year ended 31 December 2024. The increase is mainly due to the higher short term trade receivables.

Capital Expenditure and Commitment

For the 1H2025, the Group's capital expenditure amounted to RMB980.6 million for the purchase of plant and machinery and the construction of production facilities in the PRC, Malaysia and Indonesia. Capital commitment contracted for but not incurred by the Group as of 30 June 2025 amounted to RMB988.1 million (31 December 2024: RMB1,174.0 million), which were mainly related to the new capacities of architectural glass, automobile glass and float glass to be added in the PRC, Malaysia and Indonesia.

Capital Structure

There has been no material change in the capital structure of the Company during the 1H2025. The capital of the Group companies is the ordinary shares.

Net Current Assets and Current Liabilities

As of 30 June 2025, the Group had net current assets of RMB1,960.8 million (31 December 2024: RMB666.0 million), with the current ratio of 1.18 (31 December 2024: 1.06). The increase of current ratio represented a decrease of short term bank borrowings but no impact to the financial position maintained in the current period. The Group has adequate funds to meet the payment obligation of the current liabilities.

Management Discussion and Analysis

FINANCIAL RESOURCES AND LIABILITIES

During the 1H2025, the Group's primary sources of funding included cash generated from operating activities and credit facilities provided by principal banks in Hong Kong and China. As of 30 June 2025, the net cash inflow from operating activities amounted to RMB1,564.6 million (30 June 2024: RMB1,987.7 million) and the Group had cash and bank balances (including fixed deposits and pledged bank deposits) of RMB2,033.0 million (31 December 2024: RMB1,709.3 million).

BANK BORROWING

As of 30 June 2025, total bank borrowings were RMB7,054.8 million, representing a decrease of 3.5%, as compare to the year ended 31 December 2024.

The net debt gearing ratio calculated based on net debt, which is calculated as total borrowings plus lease liabilities less cash and cash equivalents, fixed bank deposits and pledged bank deposits, divided by total shareholders' equity, was at 14.3% as of 30 June 2025, as compared to 16.3% as of 31 December 2024.

LEDGE OF ASSETS

As of 30 June 2025, a bank balance of RMB79.3 million (31 December 2024: RMB83.1 million) has been pledged as collateral principally for import duties payable to the US government.

CONTINGENT LIABILITIES

As of 30 June 2025, the Group did not have any significant contingent liabilities (2024: Nil).

MATERIAL ACQUISITION AND DISPOSAL OF SUBSIDIARIES

There was no material acquisition and disposal of subsidiaries and associated companies during the 1H2025.

Management Discussion and Analysis

EXPOSURE TO FOREIGN EXCHANGE RISK

The Group's transactions are mainly denominated in RMB, United States Dollars, Malaysia Ringgit, Indonesian Rupiah, Euro, Australian Dollars, Japanese Yen and Hong Kong Dollars ("HKD"), with principal production activities conducted in the PRC, Malaysia and Indonesia. As of 30 June 2025, the Group's bank borrowings have the bearing effective interest rates at 2.74% per annum.

Hence, the Group's exposure to foreign exchange fluctuations was limited. The Group has not experienced any material difficulty and liquidity problems resulting from foreign exchange fluctuations. The Group may use financial instruments for hedging purposes as and when required. During the 1H2025, the Group did not use any financial instrument for hedging purposes.

EMPLOYEES AND REMUNERATION POLICY

As of 30 June 2025, the Group had 16,410 full-time employees of whom 14,726 were based in the PRC and 1,684 in Hong Kong and other countries and territories. The Group maintains good relationship with all of its employees and provides employees with sufficient training in business and professional knowledge including information about the applications of the Group's products and skills in maintaining good client relationship. Remuneration packages offered to the Group's employees are generally consistent with prevailing markets terms and reviewed on a regular basis. Discretionary bonuses may be awarded to employees taking into consideration the Group's performance and that of individual staff.

Pursuant to applicable laws and regulations, the Group has participated in relevant defined contribution retirement schemes administered by responsible government authorities in the PRC for its employees there. The Group's employees in Hong Kong are all participating in mandatory provident fund arrangements as required by the Mandatory Provident Fund Schemes Ordinance (Chapter 485 of the Laws of Hong Kong).

The Group has not applied any amendments to standards and interpretations that are not effective for current accounting period.

4 SEGMENT INFORMATION

Management has determined the operating segments based on the reports reviewed by the executive Directors that are used to make strategic decisions.

The executive Directors consider the business from an operational entity perspective. Generally, the executive Directors consider the performance of business of each entity within the Group separately. Thus, each entity within the Group is an individual operating segment.

Among these operating segments, these operating segments are aggregated into three segments based on the products sold: (1) float glass; (2) automobile glass; and (3) architectural glass.

The executive Directors assess the performance of the operating segments based on a measure of gross profit. The Group does not allocate other operating costs to its segments as this information is not reviewed by the executive Directors.

Sales between segments are carried out at terms mutually agreed by the relevant parties. The revenue from external parties reported to the executive Directors is measured in a manner consistent with that in the consolidated income statement.

As at 30 June/31 December	6,314	9,079

Notes:

- (a) The total cash outflow for the leases during the period was RMB3,455,000.
- (b) Lands in the PRC are state-owned. The Group acquired leasehold lands from mainland China government by one-off prepayment with lease terms of 20 to 50 years. The leasehold lands were classified as "right-of-use assets". The Group also leases various offices and warehouses. Rental contracts are typically made for fixed periods of 1 year to 3 years.

Lease terms for offices and warehouses are negotiated on an individual basis and contain a wide range of different terms and conditions. The lease agreements do not impose any covenants other than the security interests in the leased assets that are held by the lessor. Leased assets may not be used as security for borrowing purposes.

- (c) Depreciation charges of RMB529,000 were capitalised as direct cost of construction in progress during the period ended 30 June 2025 when the building thereon were not yet ready for production purposes. For the period ended 30 June 2025, depreciation of the Group's right-of-use assets amounted to RMB57,696,000 were charged to the consolidated income statement (Note 15).

- Buildings 20-30 years
- Plant and machinery (note a) 5-20 years
- Office equipment 3-7 years

The assets' residual values and useful lives are reviewed, and adjusted if appropriate, at the end of each reporting period.

- (a) Only solar energy related equipment is applicable to depreciation of useful lives of 20 years.

21 FAIR VALUE MEASUREMENT OF FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

FAIR VALUE ESTIMATION

The table below analyses financial instruments carried at fair value, by valuation method. The different levels have been defined as follows:

- Quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities (level 1).
- Inputs other than quoted prices included within level 1 that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly (that is, as prices) or indirectly (that is, derived from prices) (level 2).
- Inputs for the asset or liability that are not based on observable market data (that is, unobservable inputs) (level 3).

The following table presents the Group's assets and liabilities that are measured at fair value at 30 June 2025 and 31 December 2024.

At 30 June 2025

Current assets

Financial assets at fair value

—	—	12,686	12,686
19,626	—	12,686	32,312

The fair value of financial instruments traded in active markets is based on quoted market prices at the balance sheet date. A market is regarded as active if quoted prices are readily and regularly available from an exchange, dealer, broker, industry group, pricing service, or regulatory agency, and those prices represent actual and regularly occurring market transactions on an arm's length basis.

The fair value of financial instruments that are not traded in an active market (for example, over-the-counter derivatives) is determined by using valuation techniques. These valuation techniques maximise the use of observable market data where it is available and rely as little as possible on entity specific estimates. If all significant inputs required to fair value an instrument are observable, the instrument is included in level 2.

If one or more of the significant inputs is not based on observable market data, the instrument is included in level 3.

Specific valuation techniques used to value financial instruments include:

- Quoted market prices or dealer quotes for similar instruments.
- Other techniques, such as discounted cash flow analysis, are used to determine fair value for the remaining financial instruments.

During six months ended 30 June 2025, there were no transfer between Level 1 and Level 2, or transfer into or out of Level 3 (2024: Nil). The group's policy is to recognise transfers between levels of fair value hierarchy as at the end of the reporting period in which they occur.

Notes:

- (1) The vesting of the share options is subject to satisfaction of certain performance targets as determined by the Board at its absolute discretion. Such performance targets include, but without limitation to, and where appropriate, (a) sales performance (e.g. revenue and profit); (b) operational performance (e.g. production yield and cost control and turnover rate); and (c) financial performance (e.g. profits, cash flow, earnings, market capitalisation and return on equity) of the Group as a whole and of the applicable business. Also, the Company has established a standard performance appraisal system to evaluate the performance and contribution of the grantees, including but not limited to, the individual's overall performance indicators (e.g. strategic driving abilities, talent development capabilities, inter-departmental cooperation capabilities and adherence to corporate culture) and discipline and responsibility (e.g. punctuality, integrity, honesty or compliance with internal procedures).

During the 1H2025, 38,000,000 shares options have been granted. The fair value of the equity-settled share options granted under the Share Option Scheme during the 1H2025 is estimated at HK$72,489,000 and is to be expensed through the Group's income statement over the three-year vesting period of the options.

HA E O ION CHEME (Continued)

The fair value of share options granted by the Company during the 1H2025 is determined in accordance with the valuation performed by an independent valuer using the Black-Scholes option pricing model. Such model is one of the commonly used models to estimate the fair value of an option. The significant variables and assumptions used in computing the fair value of the share options are set forth in the table below. The value of an option varies with different variables of a number of subjective assumptions. Any change in the variables so adopted may materially affect the estimation of the fair value of an option.

Share price at the grant date (HK$)	HK$7.88
Exercise price (HK$)	HK$7.88
Volatility (%)	45.1692%
Dividend yield (%)	5.2030%
Expected share option life (years)	3 years and 4 months
Annual risk-free interest rate (%)	2.1576%

The number of share options available for grant under the 2015 Share Option Scheme was 117,906,615 share options as of 1 January 2025. The 2015 Share option Scheme was expired on 17 January 2025, therefore no share option was available for grant as of 30 June 2025.

As of 30 June 2025, the number of share options available for grant under the 2025 Share Option Scheme was 397,719,291 and the number of share options available for grant under the service provider sublimit of the 2025 Share Option Scheme was 21,785,964.

The number of Shares that may be issued in respect of the options granted under the 2025 Share Option Scheme during the 1H2025 divided by the weighted average number of Shares in issue for the 1H2025 is 0.87%.
